JUDGMENT AND PROB/COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

Court and counsel confer. Counsel present argument. Court places findings on the record and proceeds with sentencing.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline Section 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that she is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Marilyn Eta, is hereby committed on Counts One and Thirty-Five of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 60 months. This term consists of 60 months on each of Counts One and Thirty-Five of the Indictment, to be served concurrently.

7. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer.
8. 9. The defendant shall not associate with anyone known to her to be a Harpys and/or Mexican Mafia gang member and others known to her to be participants in the Harpys and/or Mexican Mafia gang's criminal activities, with the exception of her family members. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall not be present in any area known to her to be a location where members of the Harpys and/or Mexican Mafia gang meet and/or assemble.

Defendant is advised of the right to appeal. On the government's motion, all remaining counts are dismissed as to this defendant.
